An Alabama hunting party who have recently been on a hunting trip around Ft. The gentlemen returned to their homes delighted with the trip and their good luck.

Women Who Are Envied.

Those attractive women who are lovely in face, form and temper are the envy of many who might be like them. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation or Kidney poisons show in pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. For all such, Electric Bitters work wonders. They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion. Many charming women owe their health and beauty to them. 50c at all druggists.

Rev. S. G. Baker - - Editor

Arthur Moore, after an absence of several weeks in Tampa and other cities, returned last Saturday night and spent several days among his many friends. He left Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ziegler returned from Daytona some days ago. They had been away with the intention of staying some time; but he sprained his ankle and had to return sooner than he expected. He returned in time to dig his crop of sweet potatoes before Jack Frost nipped them. He states that he will have about 60 bushels when all are gathered.

W. S. Spear has been on the sick list for a few days, but he has gotten better, and feels that he will be ready for Santa on Monday night, December 27.

Mrs. Alice Buckner, the Glenwood teacher, was in the city this week. She has been indisposed for some time, but she seems to be improving.

Mrs. Mary Hall is on the sick list this week, and Brother Patrick is looking a little melancholy. It is hoped that she may be well again soon.

Preparations still go on for the Teachers' Association, which convenes here December 28. The good citizens are asked to help the local committee in their preparations that the sessions may be what they should be in our city.

Mrs. Missouri Moore left last week for Miami, where she will spend the winter with her sister.

Mrs. Fannie Phillips, of Goldsboro, is spending a while in the city with her relatives and friends. She will probably be here until after Christmas.

Mr. Balwin, Mrs. Glover and others, of Taylorville, were in the city last week circulating among their relatives and friends.

Mrs. Marina Dozier has recently had her house painted, which adds much to its beauty and coziness.

The Rev. T. E. Davenport, of Jacksonville, spent last Sunday with the Rev. Crawford at St. Annis church. He preached two very interesting and powerful sermons, last Sunday, and returned home Wednesday.

A jolly crowd of young people went over to Orange City last Monday night, and passed the time away in pleasant amusement.

It is understood that the cantata at Bethel church will be given Monday night, December 27. All are cordially invited to attend, as the exercises promise to be interesting and enjoyable.

Mr. J. H. Thomas, one of Oak Hill's most popular and aggressive citizens, is in the city this week attending court. Mr. Thomas is a great secret society man, and is chancellor of the Knights of Pythias lodge which was set up by S. G. Baker last August.

The teachers and pupils of the Orange City school will give their Christmas exercises at their school next Monday, and it is hoped that all concerned will help to make the affair a grand one.

That the pastor and officials of Bethel church intend to have the stone walls of their church completed this season goes without saying. They have set a Christmas rally for the new church funds, and it is hoped that each and every member will pay the small sum of fifty cents on the fourth Sunday of this month according to arrangements.

Mrs. Maria DeBose, after an absence of several months in the North, has returned looking much improved by her trip. Her many friends are delighted to have her back again.

A year's subscription would be a very acceptable gift to present to your friend; why not make your friend glad with it?

Mr. H. R. Roundtree has returned from Quincy, where he went to the bedside of his mother who was injured by a run-away horse. He arrived just in time to attend her funeral. He has the sympathy of his host of friends in his hour of bereavement.

If you are suffering from biliousness, constipation, indigestion, chronic headache, invest one cent in a postal card, send to Chamberlain Medicine Co., Des Moines, Iowa, with your name and address plainly on the back, and they will forward you a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Sold by all Dealers.

"CONVICT NO. 1" MAY GET HIS RELEASE

John P. Warren Has Served Fifty Years for Wife Murder.

Hartford, Conn., Dec. 9.—When the state board of pardons meets the first of next week it will consider and act upon an application for the pardon of John P. Warren, who is officially designated as Convict No. 1 on the roster of the big Connecticut state prison at Wethersfield. If favorable action is taken by the board, and it is generally believed that such will be the case, the coming Christmas will be a happy one indeed for Warren, for it will be his first Christmas outside of prison walls in half a century.

On the day that the board of pardons meets to consider his case Warren will have completed an even fifty years as an inmate of the state prison. He is believed to be the longest imprisoned life convict in the United States, and possibly in the world.

When the doors of the big prison first closed behind him the Civil war had not commenced, railroad transportation was in its infancy and such common conveniences of the present day as the telephone, the electric car, the automobile and the typewriter were unheard of, not to mention the skyscraper buildings, wireless telegraphy, flying machines, submarine boats and a hundred and one other things with which the present generation is familiar.

Wife murder was the crime for which Warren was sentenced to life imprisonment. One day in July, 1859, he invited his eighteen-year-old wife to take a walk with him, and, coming to a brook near their farm in Willington, a small town in Tolland county, in northern Connecticut, he suggested that they take off their shoes and stockings and bathe their feet in the cool waters of the brook.

She acquiesced, but once near the brook, Warren seized her and held her head under the foot or more of water until life was extinct. Just what was the motive that actuated the man to commit the deliberate, cold-blooded and apparently unprovoked crime on his wife, no one knows and Warren himself has never talked of the crime, since he confessed and pleaded guilty at the time of his arrest.

Warren's plea of guilty and his attorney's earnest plea for a second degree sentence saved his life and he was sentenced to prison for life on the day on which a notable meeting was held in Hartford of famous Connecticut patriots, under a call "to save the Union." The war feeling was just then beginning to become a factor in national politics, but Warren was taken to Wethersfield before the war commenced, and, what has happened in the fifty years that have elapsed since that time, he knows of only indirectly and from what he has been permitted to read.

It speaks well for the methods employed at the state prison that the fifty-year inmate shows little evidence of failing powers, either mental or physical. Though seventy-one, he looks more like a man of forty-five or perhaps fifty years. He is alert mentally and takes an active interest in all that goes on about him. In recent years he has been allowed considerable freedom in the institution, though never permitted to leave the prison grounds.

If the aged "lifer" is released through the action of the board of pardons next week he will be well taken care of during his remaining years by his two younger brothers and other members of his family, all people of excellent standing. It is understood that the application for a pardon has been endorsed by many persons of prominence who have interested themselves in his case.

A Thrilling Rescue.

How Bert R. Lean, of Cheney, Wash., was saved from a frightful death is a story to thrill the world. "A hard cold," he writes, "brought on a desperate lung trouble that baffled an expert doctor here. Then I paid $10 to $15 a visit to a lung specialist in Spokane, who did not help me. Then I went to California, but without benefit. At last I used Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me and now I am as well as ever."

For Lung Trouble, Bronchitis, Coughs and Colds, Asthma, Croup and Whooping Cough its supreme. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all druggists.

His Omission.

A writer in the Washington Herald recalls this anecdote of Colonel William R. Morrison, who recently died at a good old age in his Illinois home, after distinguished service in the Civil war, then as a Democrat congressman and as civil service commissioner.

One winter he and Mrs. Morrison were occupying a suite of rooms in one of the Washington hotels, and in the middle of the night, while a snow-storm was in progress, they were awakened by the news that the hotel was on fire. Mrs. Morrison was greatly excited, immediately sprang to her feet, and began to make frantic endeavors to get to the ground, but Mr. Morrison, true to his every day principle, admonished her to be calm.

"Take your time," said he, "dress carefully, get together all your clothes and jewels, and there is no doubt we will have no difficulty in getting down safely either by the elevator or by the stairs or through the firemen's efforts. It doesn't look like very much of a fire to me."

Mrs. Morrison with great difficulty restrained herself and proceeded as rapidly as possible to dress and get ready. Mr. Morrison also made his preparations, but with greater deliberation. At length they were ready and reached the ground without any trouble.

"There," said Colonel Morrison, "you see we are here in safety and have not been hurt in the least."

"Yes, Mr. Morrison," replied his wife,

Almost Too Cruel.

De Lancy Nicoll, the New York lawyer, said at a dinner, apropos of a certain legal decision:

"It was a cruel blow—as cruel as that which a Bayside cook served on a tramp."

"This filthy tramp, knocking at the kitchen door, whined:

"I'm terrible hungry, lady. Could ye gimme a small wedge o' fresh pie?"

"We're just out of pie," said the cook, "but here's a cake for you."

"And she handed the tramp a cake of soap."

KEEP THE KIDNEYS WELL

Health is Worth Saving, and Some DeLand People Know How to Save It.

Many DeLand people take their lives in their hands by neglecting their kidneys when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger when all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a DeLand citizen's recommendation.

Mrs. Scott Hodgkin, Howry avenue, DeLand, Fla., says: "I am very glad to acknowledge the great benefit I derived from the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. My kidneys did not do their work properly and the secretions from these organs were scanty and unnatural. My back ached constantly and I suffered intensely if I stooped or lifted. I felt miserable and some days was hardly able to get around. I finally learned of Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a supply. It required but the contents of two boxes to relieve the backache and I have not had a pain in my back since. My kidneys are also normal, in fact, I have entirely been relieved of kidney trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
